

HIGHER NITEC IN ELDER CARE

MODULE OBJECTIVES

Electives (Course Specific)

Complementary Therapy

On completion of this module, students should be able to describe the alternative healing practices and complementary medicine approaches being used in the care of older adults.

Integrated Community Care

On completion of this module, students should be able to describe the principles and techniques to measure, co-ordinate and conduct group activities for the older adult and the maintenance of psychosocial, motor and communication skills.